

ETHIOPIA FORUM:

CHALLENGES AND PROSPECTS FOR CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRACY IN ETHIOPIA

Symposia and Panel Discussions March 22-24, 2019

Michigan State University, International Center
427 N Shaw Ln, Room 115, East Lansing, MI 48824

SPONSORS

The MSU African Studies Center, is the principal sponsor of the Ethiopia Forum. The following sponsors are also acknowledged for their generous financial contributions to cover the cost of the Forum.

African Studies Center, MSU

International Studies and Programs, MSU

Ethiopian American Foundation, U.S.A.

College of Social Science, MSU

Department of Geography, MSU

James Madison College, MSU

Residential College for Arts and Humanities, MSU

The Graduate School, MSU

Department of History, MSU

Office of the Provost, CMU

Office of the Dean, College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, CMU

Department of History, CMU

African Studies Center
International Studies & Programs
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Forum Objectives

A platform for knowledgeable academic and public intellectuals with expertise on Ethiopian affairs to apply reality-based analysis and offer policy options for a united and peaceful transition towards a constitutional democratic order in Ethiopia.

Program Components

SATURDAY, MARCH 23

Symposium One: 8:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Constitutional and Governance Challenges

Lunch provided: 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM

Symposium Two: 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM

Developmental Challenges

Keynote address and dinner/reception:
7:00 PM to 10:00 PM, Kellogg Center

SUNDAY, MARCH 24

Panel One: 8:00 AM to 10:00 AM

Ethiopia in Transition or at Crossroads

Panel Two: 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Roadmaps of Transition

Lunch provided: 12:30 PM

Invitation and Registration

Visit MSU Year of Global Africa at globalafrica.isp.msu.edu

Click Ethiopia Forum and use the no-fee registration form.