

MANKILLER

Film Screening

The story of an American legend, Wilma Mankiller, the Cherokee Nation's first woman Principal Chief

TUESDAY, MARCH 12 | 6:00 PM

MSU LAW SCHOOL ROOM 343 (CASTLE BOARD ROOM)

The film follows the life of Wilma Mankiller, the first woman to be elected Principal Chief of the Cherokee Nation, from her childhood in Oklahoma, through her family's relocation to San Francisco, as well as her return to Oklahoma and her rise to power within the Cherokee Nation.

Mankiller utilizes original interviews with friends, family, and activists including Gloria Steinem as well as archival footage of Wilma Mankiller to depict a transcendent leader that overcame rampant sexism to usher in an era of improved stability and prosperity for the Cherokee Nation.

This event is open to all MSU students, faculty, and staff. Refreshments will be provided.

Co-Sponsored by the
James Madison College Office of Diversity Programming & Student Engagement
Indigenous Law and Policy Center at Michigan State University College of Law
Diversity and Equity Services Office at Michigan State University College of Law
College of Agriculture and Natural Resources Native American Institute
Broad College Multicultural Business Programs
Residential College in Arts and Humanities