Understanding Ways to Create Womanist Public Sanctuary in and beyond the Pandemic

The COVID-19 reality forced many of us to see the best and the worst of our lives. Passing through the ongoing wilderness of 2020 to now, a state of liberation amid the pandemic struggle of uncertainty, chaos, social movement activity, and inadequate leadership, we continually strive to triumph, even in travail, triumph, and tragedy. This presentation explores how we created womanist public sanctuary, providing openly accessible safe space for community.
