

REPRODUCTIVE WRITES

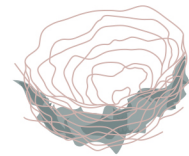

Wednesday, April 24th from 7 - 8:30 pm

LookOut! Gallery

Snyder-Phillips Hall, Second Floor

362 Bogue St.

East Lansing, MI 48825

THE ART OF
INFERTILITY

Join us to explore using creative writing as a way of easing our anxieties around the threat of losing reproductive freedoms.

We often think of reproductive rights as having access to contraceptives and abortion. While this is true, it is much more than that. What does having reproductive rights meant to you? What are your own personal stories about reproductive health?

Creative writing can be a source for advocacy, as well as healing. Let's gather to take back our bodies. We welcome all allies for reproductive rights and healthcare, all genders and sexualities. Come prepared to write and share short pieces of poetry or prose in a safe space. We'll also explore a visual component by creating blackout poetry.

REGISTER for this FREE Workshop at <http://bit.ly/reprowritesmsu2019tickets>

Department of English
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

THE ART OF INFERTILITY